

A one-year membership to NOFA/Massachusetts includes:

Discounts on:

The annual three-day summer conference in Amherst, MA at Umass.

The annual one-day winter conference on farming, gardening, and advocacy issues.

All workshops including, the Practical Skills Workshop Series, the Advanced Growers' Winter Seminar, the the Massachusetts Organic Gardening Workshop Day, and the Nutrient Density Field Trainings.

Subscriptions to:

The quarterly journal of the Interstate NOFA Council, The Natural Farmer - reporting on regional organic growing and related issues.

The newsletter, NOFA/MASS News - updating members on NOFA programs and activities and reporting on key issues in organic food, farming and land care in Massachusetts.

The annual Massachusetts Organic Food Guide - a complete listing of certified organic farms, sustainable farms and a wide variety of sustainable and organic businesses with "how-to" articles and workshop listings.

The annual NOFA Guide to Organic Land Care - comprehensively listing over 400 NOFA Accredited Organic Land Care Professionals with helpful articles on landscape maintenance.

Access to:

The NOFA/Mass Bulk Order - with reduced prices on potting soil, compost, fertilizers, soil amendments, pest controls, cover crop seeds, seed potatoes and onions, and various tools and supplies - for members only.

In person, by phone, and online organic extension services to help gardeners and farmers with growing questions (more information with your membership confirmation). Hundreds of how-to videos for purchase or rent.

Information on the availability of organic grain for livestock feed in Massachusetts.

Raw milk information for consumers and farmers and advocacy support for raw milk sales.

CSA, apprenticeship listings and much more on our continuously updated interactive website.

For questions about NOFA/Mass membership, please contact: Christine Rainville, ; membership@nofamass.org